NORTH BRUNSWICK SENIOR WINS NJCTS SCHOLARSHIP

New Jersey Center for Tourette Syndrome Awards 2009 Children's Scholarship to Syed Muzzamil

North Brunswick, NJ- Syed Muzzamil is a recipient of the 2009 New Jersey Center for Tourette Syndrome's 2009 Children's Scholarship in the amount of $500. Muzzamil, who graduated from North Brunswick Township High School, was selected for his academic achievement, community service and accomplishments as an individual with Tourette Syndrome.

Muzzamil served as student government president; played varsity golf; participated in the Model U.N. program; was a member of the National Honor Society and was a member of his school's robotics team. Muzzamil took part in the Robert Wood Johnson Mini-Medical Seminar and volunteered at St. Peter's Hospital in New Brunswick, the physician office of Dr. Saleha Hussain and the Muslim Center of Middlesex County.

NJCTS congratulates Syed Muzzamil on his achievements and wishes him continued success in his academic and career endeavors.

The NJCTS Children's Scholarship Award is given to outstanding high school seniors in the state of New Jersey who have excelled in their schools and communities in the face of living with Tourette Syndrome. To learn more about the Center, please visit www.njcts.org.
