BEDMINSTER STUDENT WINS NJCTS SCHOLARSHIP

New Jersey Center for Tourette Syndrome Awards 2010 Children's Scholarship to Matthew Mueller

Bedminster, NJ- Matthew Mueller is a recipient of the 2010 New Jersey Center for Tourette Syndrome's Children's Scholarship in the amount of $1,000. Mueller, who graduated from Immaculata High School (Somerville), was selected for his academic achievement, community service and accomplishments as an individual with Tourette Syndrome.

Mueller served as Student Council President, participated in mission trips, is a member of the National Honor Society, French Honor Society and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He played varsity football and baseball and volunteered for a local mobile soup kitchen and Special Olympics. In preparation for a career in the medical field, Mueller participated in the Mini-Med School program presented by Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. He will attend Raritan Valley Community College in the fall.

NJCTS congratulates Matthew Mueller on his achievements and wishes him continued success in his academic and career endeavors.

The NJCTS Children's Scholarship Award is given to outstanding high school seniors in the state of New Jersey who have excelled in their schools and communities in the face of living with Tourette Syndrome. To learn more about the Center, please visit www.njcts.org.
