Tim Howard Invites You to Help Cause and Organization Close to His Heart

Proceeds from "Team Up with Tim Howard" raffle to benefit the NJ Center for Tourette Syndrome

Somerville, N.J.- Aside from his stardom as one of the world's most famous soccer players, Tim Howard is an advocate for the Tourette Syndrome community- a neurological disorder affecting as many as 1 in 100 individuals.

Each ticket purchased for the "Team Up with Tim Howard" raffle will support the programs of the NJ Center for Tourette Syndrome- the only organization of its kind bringing innovative research, services and education to the TS community. Howard has been on the NJCTS Board of Directors since 2004.

He knows what it's like to be a kid with a neurological disorder which causes erratic muscle movements or uncontrollable sounds. He also knows what it's like to overcome obstacles like TS and achieve great success. There are many reasons why Tim Howard is an inspiration, and his commitment to children and families with TS is certainly at the top of the list.

"Though based in the Garden State, the work of NJCTS benefits the entire TS community through our research, family outreach, education and medical training programs," said NJCTS Executive Director Faith Rice. "In this economy, this opportunity is crucial for us to be able to keep delivering to what we know is an underserved community," said Rice.

The U.S. National team and Everton F.C. goalkeeper is generously inviting the winner of the "Team Up with Tim Howard" raffle to meet him in the U.K. The winner will receive roundtrip airfare for two from Newark Liberty International Airport in New Jersey to Manchester, U.K.; hotel accommodations for two nights; two tickets to an Everton match and dinner with the soccer superstar.

"I look forward to hosting this year's winner to an Everton game and dinner," said Howard. Though there's only one winner drawn in the raffle, everyone who purchases a ticket is making a positive and important contribution to preserving the Center.

Tickets are on sale now through June 1st by visiting www.teamupwithtimhoward.org for $25 each or 5 tickets for $100.
